specifically withdraw their opposition and as a result para 4A has been inserted into the Order.

I have reviewed the terms of the Order with Trustee's counsel Mr. Shea. I accept his submission that I have jurisdiction to grant the order and that it is fair and reasonable in the circumstances.

The granting of the order does not prejudice the rights of any stakeholder. The matter will have to return to the court for approval and any opposition can be dealt with at that time.

The order shall go as per the draft filed & signed.
