Introduction and Purpose of the Report

Introduction

1. MNP Ltd. in its capacity as Court-Appointed Receiver (the “Receiver”) of F & L Concrete Services Ltd. (the “Company”) filed its First Report to Court (the “First Report”) dated August 15, 2023.
2. The Receiver has prepared this Supplemental Report to the Receiver’s First Report to Court (the “Supplemental Report”) to advise the Court with respect to its activities subsequent to filing the First Report and to provide further information in response to the materials filed on August 25, 2023, by the Company and its employees.
3. This Supplemental Report should be read in conjunction with the First Report. Capitalized terms not defined in this Supplemental Report are as defined in the First Report. All references to currency are in Canadian dollars unless otherwise stated.
4. In preparing the Supplemental Report and making comments herein, the Receiver has been provided with, and has relied upon, certain unaudited, draft and/or internal financial information of the Company, the Company’s books and records, and information from other third-party sources (collectively, the “Information”). The Receiver has not audited, reviewed or otherwise attempted to verify the accuracy or completeness of the Information in a manner that would wholly or partially comply with generally accepted assurance standards or other standards established by the Chartered Professional Accountants of Canada.

Purpose of this Report

5. The primary purpose of this report is to bring the Court up to date on the activities of the Receivership, to permit the Court to make such determinations as it may consider necessary.
6. The secondary purpose of this report is to address the extraordinary court applications and allegations made by the directors, officers and other principals of the Company, by providing the Court with the Receiver's advice respecting the approach taken to commencing the Receivership and the reasons why certain steps have been taken, to provide additional facts and detail where the Receiver considers it may assist the court, and finally, to respectfully dispute those factual averments made by and on behalf of the Company that the Receiver considers to be inaccurate.

Receiver's Role

7. It appears from the communications received since the date of the Receiver's appointment that there is a fundamental lack of understanding of the Receiver's role. For clarity:
 - (a) The Receiver is an officer of the Court who is appointed to carry out the functions set out in the Receivership Order;
 - (b) The Receiver does not act for one creditor, for the debtor, or for any group of them. The Receiver is appointed to represent the interest of all parties;
 - (c) The receivership proceeding is not a restructuring process driven by the Company through creditor protection proceedings;
 - (d) The Receiver, once appointed, is charged with taking full control of the Company's assets and affairs for the benefits of the stakeholders;
 - (e) The Receiver is authorized but not obligated to carry on operations of the Company as it sees fit;
 - (f) The Receiver obtains no benefit whether the company continues to operate or whether it shut down. The decision is made independently, and the conduct of Management plays an important part in conjunction with financial viability;
 - (g) The Receiver does not require permission from the Company's principals with respect to what steps it can take and whom it may contact. The Receiver takes its instructions from the Court; and,
 - (h) The Company's principals, its employees and representatives are required to work in cooperation with the Receiver under the terms of the Receivership order but do not maintain authority to conduct business on behalf of the Company without the Receiver's knowledge.

Activities of the Receiver

Preliminary – General Approach to Receivership

8. MNP Ltd. has undertaken numerous court appointments in the last 60 years. A substantial percentage of those appointments has been as a court-appointed receiver, pursuant to the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act (the "BIA"), and otherwise over the assets and undertaking of business found by courts to be insolvent.

9. During this time, procedures and protocols have been developed and refined to ensure that all statutory duties and best practices are observed and constitute a roadmap for the commencement and ongoing administration of a receivership.
10. In the present case, as the appointed officer of this Honourable Court, the entirety of the Receiver's team deployed on this receivership is fully acquainted with and has followed those protocols from the date of appointment to the present.
11. Thus, following the issuance of the Receivership Order, the Receiver's approach to execution of its duties was to do the following:
 - (a) Attend at the principal place of business of the Company to introduce the Receiver to the principals of the business, and to permit the Receiver to take control of that principal place of business as well as the business records of the Company;
 - (b) Obtain all necessary information respecting assets of the Company, and their location, to permit the Receiver to secure all such assets for the administration of the receivership and to protect the interests of the creditors therein;
 - (c) Examine the business operations of the Company, with a view to determining what business operations could prudently be carried on for the benefit of the creditor, and what operations should cease for the same reason;
 - (d) Deal with the employees of the Company, by way of determining which employees may reasonably be required for any business operation considered by the Receiver to be prudent.
12. The Receiver always strives to convey an even-handed approach to matters arising from the administration of a Receivership, as the Receiver represents the court and not any of the parties and is to act in the best interests of the stakeholders as a whole. While the Receiver may need to be firm on occasion with debtors, creditors and others, the Receiver seeks to do so only for the purposes of ensuring the proper administration of the receivership estate.

General Issues Arising at the Commencement of this Receivership

13. As is apparent from the affidavit material filed on behalf of the Company, the process of commencing the Receivership was and continues to be difficult.
 - (a) When the Receiver arrived at the principal place of business of the Company, none of the employees had been informed by the Company of the existence of the Receivership Order and all professed surprise at the Receiver's arrival;
 - (b) The principal contact with the Company at the commencement of the Receivership was the Company's Controller, Kurt Schmidt. On August 8, 2023, the Receiver asked Mr. Schmidt to convey a request for a meeting to the Company's President, Mr. Fichter. Mr. Fichter did come to the office for a meeting but remained on site for approximately 10 minutes and left abruptly, following which Mr. Schmidt advised the Receiver that Company management preferred that the Receiver should deal with Mr. Schmidt, as Mr. Fichter was angry about the receivership.
 - (c) Following his abrupt departure, the Receiver requested a call with Mr. Fichter on August 8 to discuss the steps proposed to be taken the following day. As a courtesy, as it was clear that the employees were not advised of the receivership order despite it being granted on August 4th, the Receiver extended the opportunity for Mr. Fichter to first meet with his employees on the morning of August 9th and the Receiver would meet with the employees thereafter. It was agreed, through Mr. Schmidt, that the Receiver would attend the Business Premises at 6:30 AM on August 9th, which it did.

- (d) Mr. Fichter was on site with his employees upon the Receiver's arrival, however, before the Receiver had an opportunity to have any meaningful discussion with him, he again abruptly left the Business Premises.
- (e) During the course of these Receivership proceedings, Mr. Fichter has not requested any meetings with the Receiver. Further, Mr. Schmidt on several occasions advised the Receiver that Mr. Fichter often preferred to communicate through Mr. Schmidt.
- (f) The relationship exhibited by Company management has largely been adversarial. For example,
 - (i) the first communication to the Receiver by Company Counsel took place on August 8, 2023, four days following the receipt of the filed receivership order setting out that the receivership was "more like a U.S. Chapter 11 protection" and which largely misstated the terms and effect of the Receivership Order.
 - (ii) At approximately 6:40 AM on August 9th, Mr. Schmidt requested a meeting with the Receiver wherein he became quite animated in his threats to sue the Receiver for gross negligence;
 - (iii) In a further letter directed to Receiver's counsel by Company Counsel on August 10, it was suggested that the Receiver had locked management of the business premises and following that correspondence, this has been a continued allegation. Respectfully, this has not been the case, as in each instance, the Receiver has granted access to the business premises and records when requested to do so, including on at least two occasions on August 10, 2023, August 15, 2023 and August 21, 2023. At no time during these visits was Mr. Fichter restricted from access to any of the business records.
 - (iv) It has been alleged on multiple occasions, from as early as August 9, 2023, that the Receiver was acting in a grossly negligent manner to destroy the shareholder's equity;
 - (v) In a letter received by Receiver's counsel on August 10, 2023, counsel for the Company complained that the Receiver was refusing to cooperate in the management of the Corporation "until acquiring necessary information" and again accused the Receiver of gross negligence and threatening legal action;
 - (vi) In a letter dated August 16, 2023, from new counsel to counsel for the Receiver, allegations of gross negligence were again made.

14. The issue has not been restricted to communication. Paragraphs 24 through 27 of the First Report detail resistance to the Receiver's efforts to control the assets and undertaking of the Company, including the provision of misleading information.

Disagreement Over Continued Operation

15. As was noted at paragraph 9 of the First Report, initial discussions with Management quickly turned to whether the Company would continue to operate, and Management was advised that if financial detail was immediately obtained, the Receiver would review and assess whether continued operations were in the best interests of the receivership estate.

16. The process by which the Receiver made its initial determination to cease operations is set out in paragraphs 10 through 16 of the First Report.
17. Following that determination, and in particular, because of the continued insistence of Management that the Company should operate, the Receiver has revisited this determination. In so doing, it has had particular regard to:
 - (a) The continued lack of financial information available to the Receiver. Nearly three weeks have passed since the Receiver took possession of the Company, and as at the date of this report, the Receiver has yet to receive financial information from Management to support continuing operations of the Company;
 - (b) The considerations set out in paragraph 16 of the First Report appear to be fully applicable and relevant; and
 - (c) The ongoing actions of Management (including but not limited to repeated threats of litigation against the Receiver) do not create a scenario where the Receiver can safely manage operations of the Company at this time.

Securing of Assets

18. The Receiver has had particular difficulties arise from its efforts to identify and to take control over equipment and dwellings owned by the Company.
19. Again, as noted in paragraph 26 of the First Report, the Receiver has received misleading information from the Management with respect to certain assets.
20. The Receiver has had some success in securing a substantial volume of assets, but on the basis of information contained in the Company's records, questions remain with respect to certain assets identified, being whether they still belong to the Company, or if not, when they were disposed of, and if still owned by the Company, where the assets may be.
21. On several occasions, the Receiver has asked for information respecting those assets, with no response being received, including the letters of August 11, 2023 and August 15, 2023 addressed to former counsel for the Company, and the letter of August 18, 2023 addressed to new counsel for the Company. The Receiver has received no response from the Company or management with respect to these assets, aside from a reference in the affidavit material served by the Company on August 25, 2023.
22. Mr. Fichter, in his Affidavit dated August 25, 2023 (the "Fichter Affidavit") has suggested that only 6 assets remain to be relocated from their current location to the Business Premises. As of the date of this Supplemental Report, the Receiver does not have details on which assets he is referring to.
23. The failure of the Company and management to respond means that the Receiver has been unable to determine the extent of the Company's equipment holdings and has been unable to deal with the tenancies in the two dwellings owned by the Company.

Unauthorized Operations

24. The Receiver has been advised on multiple occasions since its appointment that the Company continued to work at job sites despite not being authorized to do so. Particular reference was made to an ongoing job at Canadian Natural Resources Ltd. ("CNRL"). In respect of the Affidavit of Blaine Graham dated August 23, 2023 (the "Graham Affidavit"), the Receiver confirms that it did contact Mr. Graham, the purpose of which was two-fold:

- (a) To attempt to independently verify whether the Company was continuing with unauthorized work; and,
 - (b) To ascertain whether any Company equipment remained on the job site (required as no response from the Company had been provided to the Receiver on the locations of assets).
25. In accordance with the Receivership Order, the Receiver has full authority to approach the stakeholders of the Company as it sees fit. This includes customers.
26. It appears that Mr. Fichter has continued to interfere in the proceedings by contacting stakeholders of the Company and requesting certain relief without the Receiver's knowledge. Attached as Schedule "A" is correspondence received from Wells Fargo detailing a request made on August 28, 2023, for a 30-day grace period on lease payments.

Factual Issues of Relevance to Pending Applications

27. With the Company bringing an application for various remedies the Receiver has considered it incumbent to provide whatever information the Receiver is able, for the assistance of this Honourable court.

Profitability of Company

28. The Receiver has generated a profit and loss report from the Company's books and records for the period January 1, 2023, to August 29, 2023. The report indicates that the Company's net profit to August 29, 2023, is $1,053,530 which shows a 23% net profit margin. The Receiver is unable to comment on the accuracy of the information in the Company's books and records.
29. Of the revenue, $282,000 represents the sale of fixed assets. When this is removed, the net profit margin is reduced to 19%.
30. Mr. Fichter in the Fichter Affidavit references a net profit margin for the current year at 62% which is three times the current net profit margin reflected in the books and records.
31. On its face, it may appear that the Company is generating a profit, however, as of August 4, 2023, the Company had approximately $908,000 in outstanding trade accounts payable (this is in addition to outstanding source deductions detailed below).

Canada Revenue Agency ("CRA") Unremitted Source Deductions

32. The Receiver has spoken with a representative of the CRA and was informed that the Company owes the following amounts for unremitted source deductions:

2020	$231,000.00
2021	$417,000.00
2022	$270,000.00
2023	$ 78,000.00
Total	$996,000.00

33. At the time of the discussion, the CRA representative had yet to complete the calculation of penalties and interest but provided an estimated balance owing of $1,300,000.00, including penalties and interest.
34. As at the date of the Supplemental Report, the Receiver has not been provided with a written detailed calculation of the interest and penalties owing on the principal amount, nor the deemed trust portion of the balance outstanding. The Receiver cautions the Court and the parties with respect to relying on these values as CRA has not yet issued a formal statement of account.

35. The Receiver has received fax confirmation from CRA that the Company owes $96.21, $26,630.13, and $34,259.89 in unremitted GST for the periods ending March 31, 2023, May 31, 2023, and June 30, 2023, respectively for a total owing of $60,876.23. The deemed trust portion of the amount outstanding is $60,642.39.
36. The Company was also not making payments to its primary secured lender, Affinity Credit Union.
37. Based on communications to date, it appears that what Management of the Company is seeking is a restructuring plan or viability assessment of the Company, which is not the role of the Receiver. The Receiver also notes that its firm attempted to complete a viability assessment of the Company between November 2022 and January 2023 but the Company was uncooperative and did not produce any of the requested financial information for review.

Valuation of Equipment

38. The Receiver intended to obtain an appraisal of the assets as soon as could be practicably completed at the outset of the Receivership. Given the difficulties the Receiver has encountered surrounding control over assets, the appraisal has been delayed.
39. The Receiver commissioned McDougall Auctioneers Ltd. ("McDougall") to perform an appraisal of the equipment. As at the date of the Supplemental Report, McDougall is in the process of preparing an appraisal of the equipment that is in the possession of the Receiver. Accordingly, the results of that appraisal are not available at present but are expected within 2-3 weeks.
40. The internal books and records of the Company indicate that approximately $3,400,000.00 remains owing on leased assets as of May 31, 2023. The Receiver is unable to comment on the accuracy of the information contained in the Company's books and records. The balances owing to the lease creditors have not been independently verified at this time. Attached as Schedule "C" is a copy of the Personal Property Security Registry for the Company.
41. Management has not provided the Receiver with support for its equipment valuation of $10,000,000 which was set out in the Fichter Affidavit.

Concerns with Company's Affidavit Material

42. The Receiver has a particular concern with respect to the affidavit material served on August 25, 2023. The following is an effort by the Receiver to raise those areas where the Receiver disputes the material filed, or where additional information and context may be of assistance to the court.

Receiver's Interaction with F&L Contracts

43. It is not unusual for the Receiver to contact Company customers in receivership proceedings. In addition to the contact made with CNRL as set out in the Graham Affidavit, the Receiver has also contacted other customers of the Company on the basis that information was provided to the Receiver that Company was carrying on unauthorized work.
44. Additionally, the Receiver has contacted all other customers for the purposes of issuing collection letters for the outstanding accounts receivable. This is standard practice in receivership proceedings and necessary to preserve the assets of the Company for the benefit of the Company's stakeholders.

45. Contrary to the comments made in various correspondence, it would be unusual for the Receiver to not have any contact with the Company's customers.

Receiver's Interaction with Employees

46. On August 9, 2023, the Receiver arrived at the Business Premises at approximately 6:30 am to unlock the gates. Prior to doing so, the Receiver informed the employees gathered outside the gates that Mr. Fitcher would be meeting with employees and that the Receiver would like to meet with the employees thereafter. Mr. Fitcher was present at this time.
47. As stated in the First Report, the Receiver met with the Company's employees and notified them of the Receivership proceedings and the intent to halt operations at the end of the working day.
48. The Receiver was met with resistance from the employees when trying to organize the meeting. At least one employee refused to meet with the Receiver and instead communicated that he "had work to do" while continuing to prepare equipment to take from the business premises.
49. At the meeting on August 9th, 2023, it was made abundantly clear to the employees that only those employees who were attending the job site of Vermillion, Anova or Tundra were authorized to work based on the discussions the Receiver had with Mr. Fichter the previous day.
50. The Receiver positioned an employee at each of the two gates of the Business Premises to record the equipment leaving the Business Premises together with the employee operating the equipment. Most of the employees were cooperative, but some were not (i.e., they drove past the Receiver and refused to stop). The Receiver monitored both gates during the entire day.
51. Dale Whitefield, by his own account in his Affidavit dated August 24, 2023 (the "Whitefield Affidavit") attended the staff meeting and was advised that CNRL was not an authorized job for that day and chose to take Company equipment and go to the job site anyway.
52. Many assets left the yard the morning of August 9, 2023. Later the same morning, at least two large semi units operated by employees returned to the yard without the trailers the semi units originally left with and attempted to hook-up to additional trailers located at the back of the yard. The Receiver stopped the employees from taking the trailers and informed the employees that they were to return the trucks together with the original trailers to the yard as soon as the authorized work was completed.
53. When the Receiver sought clarification on when the employees anticipated being finished work for the day, one of the employees advised that it could be as late as midnight. The Receiver stated that it was willing to accommodate the employees to ensure that access was available late into the evening.
54. Later that evening, the Receiver contacted those employees with equipment to confirm when the equipment would be returned. Several of these employees were evasive and avoidant and certain employees deliberately attempted to conceal equipment (detailed in the First Report). The Receiver reminded the employees of their requirement to cooperate with this Court's order.
55. In many of the Affidavits filed by the Company employees, the employees expressed shock at the Receiver's presence and the receivership proceedings. These receivership proceedings had been ongoing since in or around April 2023 and Management had knowledge that the Receivership Order was granted days prior to the Receiver's arrival. It was a direct choice of Management not to inform their employees of the precarious state of the Company.

56. Further, Mr. Fichter met with the employees on the morning of August 9th (before the Receiver's staff meeting) but still chose not to inform the employees of status of the Company or the reason for the Receiver's attendance on site.

[Response to Dallas Weinrauch's Affidavit dated August 24, 2023 (the "Weinrauch Affidavit")]

57. On August 9, 2023, Mr. Weinrauch made several trips in and out of the yard, with and without trailers attached to the Ford truck he was driving. He fueled the truck several times throughout the day. He was approached by the Receiver on several occasions to identify which assets were leaving and which assets were being returned to the yard. At no time in its interactions with Mr. Weinrauch did the Receiver indicate that it was there to destroy the company.
58. Further, and by his own admission in the Weinrauch Affidavit, Mr. Weinrauch maintained possession of a Company vehicle despite requests made by the Receiver for him to return the asset.

[Response to the Whitefield Affidavit]

59. On August 9, 2023, at approximately 7:00 pm an individual was dropped off at the Business Premises. The individual entered through the front door at which point he was asked to provide his name. He refused and stated that the Receiver should contact Chris Fitcher. Following repeated requests for his name, he provided the name of Lorne. The Receiver checked the employee list and determined that there was no employee named Lorne. The Receiver followed the individual into the staff room where the individual was submitting his hours for the day. The Receiver again asked the individual for his name to which he replied it was Dale. The Receiver then confirmed with Mr. Whitefield that he was the driver of Unit T9, which was one of the units that had not been returned.
60. The Receiver asked Mr. Whitefield for the location of the vehicle. Mr. Whitefield informed the Receiver that the truck was broken down on a client site. Mr. Whitefield refused to provide the Receiver with the location of the truck. The truck was located by the Receiver approximately 1.5 hours later parked behind an aggregate pile at the Wash Plant.

[Response to the Gregory Krueger August 24, 2023 Affidavit]

61. As stated in the First Report, four of the Company's semi and trailer units were not returned to the yard by the end of the day on August 9, 2023. The Receiver remained at the Business Premises until approximately 8:00 pm to facilitate the return of the equipment.
62. After leaving the Business Premises, the Receiver drove to the Wash plant located southeast of Estevan, where it located additional assets including the missing semi and trailer units.
63. The Receiver also located a Kubota skid-steer that had been parked in a ditch (with keys left in the ignition) approximately 1 kilometer west of the Business Premises. Upon confirmation that the asset belonged to the Company, the Receiver returned the skid-steer to the Business premises.
64. The Receiver returned to the Business Premises at approximately 9:45 pm on August 9, 2023. The Receiver subsequently made phone calls and sent text messages to the four employees informing that the assets they were driving had been located, that they were not authorized to operate the assets, and that keys to the trucks were to be returned by 7:30 am August 10, 2023.
65. As the Receiver did not locate certain assets on August 9, 2023 until after regular working hours (specifically the equipment located at the Wash Plant) the phone calls and texts made to four employees were made later in the evening and not during standard business hours. The Receiver believed it was important for the employees to know the equipment had been located and wanted to provide clear instructions that the equipment was not to be relocated or used for work the following day.

66. Further, as set out previously, it was indicated by an employee on the morning of August 9th that the employees could be working until as late as midnight.

[Response to the Arthur McArthur August 24, 2023, Affidavit (the "McArthur Affidavit")]

67. When the Receiver met with the employees on August 9, 2023, the employees were informed that they would have an opportunity to pick up their personal items located on the Business Premises.
68. Many of the employees obtained their personal items when they completed their workday on August 9, 2023.
69. On August 10, 2023, Mr. Schmidt contacted the Receiver regarding the return of the employees' PPE and other personal items. The Receiver asked Mr. Schmidt to have the employees contact the Receiver directly by email to facilitate the return of the personal property. Attached as Schedule "B" is a text exchange between the Receiver and Mr. Schmidt providing the detail on where to email the request so arrangements could be made. Subsequent to this exchange of messages, the Receiver has not received any further communication from Mr. Schmidt on the matter.
70. To date no employees have contacted the Receiver by email to request that access to their personal items and the Receiver specifically notes that, to the best of its knowledge, it has received no such request from Arthur McArthur.
71. The Receiver is aware of one employee being provided access to their tools at the Business Premises when the employee attended the location unannounced and met with a representative of the Receiver.

Professional Fees

72. Attached is a summary of the Receiver's fees and disbursements as of August 29, 2023 totaling $97,072 (excluding GST). The Receiver notes that due to the adversarial nature of this Receivership to date, its fees are higher than usual.
73. As of the date of the Supplemental Report, the fees and disbursements of the Receiver's counsel totals approximately $12,799.67. Due to the volume of correspondence, including incessant threats of litigation, the fees of the Receiver's counsel are higher than usual.
74. The Receiver is not seeking approval of its fees at this time but is providing the detail for the benefit of all stakeholders.

Conclusion

75. Based on the foregoing, the Receiver seeks an order of the Court for the following:
- (a) approval of the Activities of the Receiver as set out in the First Report and the Supplemental First Report; and,
 - (b) approval of an order authorizing Cavers Investigations & Bailiff Services Inc. access to the personal residence of Mr. Fichter for the purposes of locating and securing Company assets.

Don't think you meant for me to see this?

Karen.aylward@mnp.ca

It'll be coordinated directly with the employees through my office.

Thank you. Will give to Chris to send to anyone that contacted him.

Fri, Aug 11 at 10:45 AM

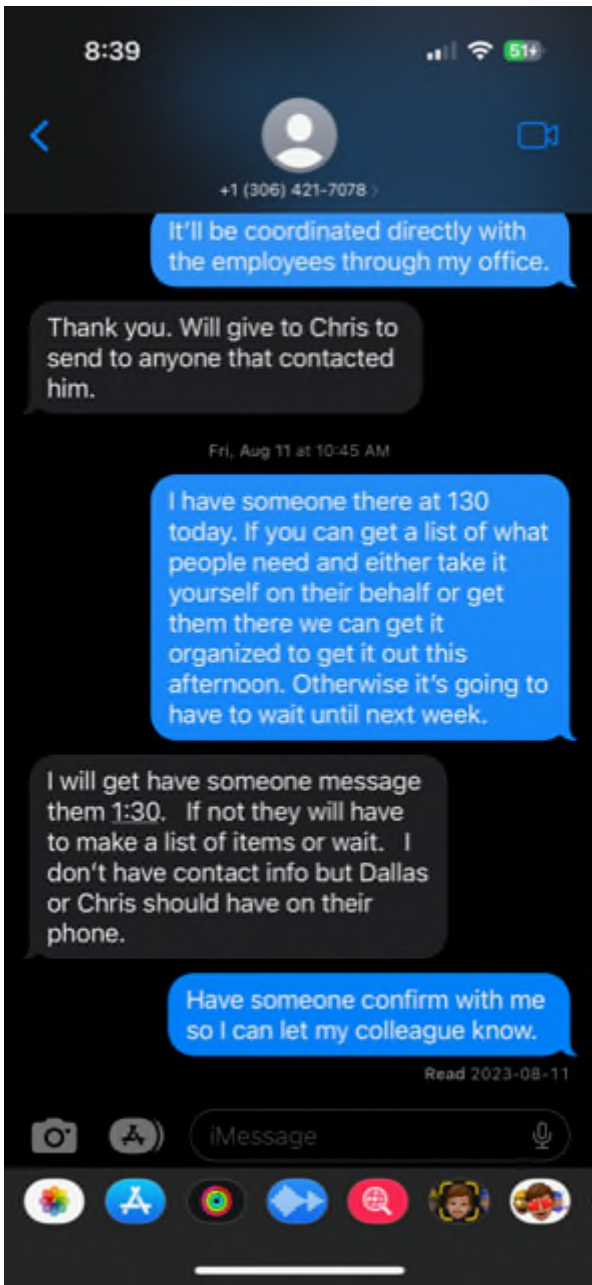

I have someone there at 130 today. If you can get a list of what people need and either take it yourself on their behalf or get them there we can get it organized to get it out this afternoon. Otherwise it's going to have to wait until next week.

I will get have someone message them 1:30. If not they will have to make a list of items or wait. I don't have contact info but Dallas or Chris should have on their phone.
